If we're unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction (or if we haven't been able to resolve a dispute we have with you after attempting to do so informally), you and we agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. You and we agree that any dispute must be brought in the parties' individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding.

Important housekeeping

54. No professional advice: BlueSky is not a professional services firm of any sort, and therefore is not in the business of giving any kind of professional advice. We may provide you with information we think could be helpful or useful in running your business, however this should not be seen as a substitute for professional advice. We are not liable for your use of the information in that way.

56. Notices: Any notice you send to BlueSky must be sent to our support team (info@blueskycreations.com.au), and any notices we send to you will be sent to your email address provided through your subscription.
57. Exclusion: There may be, in some places, non-excludable warranties, guarantees or other rights provided by law (non-excludable guarantees). These terms do not exclude, restrict, or modify them – they still apply. We are bound only by the express promises made in these terms, except for non-excludable guarantees and other rights you have that we cannot exclude. Our liability for breach of a non-excludable guarantee is limited, at our option, to either replacing or paying the cost of replacing the relevant product or service (unless the non-excludable guarantee says otherwise).
58. Export limitations: You must not use our products or services in violation of any export or trade embargo laws that apply to you.
59. Blocking your access, disabling your subscription, or refusing to process a payment: As BlueSky operates globally, different laws may apply in different countries that may restrict our relationship with you. If we reasonably believe there's a risk - like a potential breach of a law or regulation - associated with you, your company, your subscription, or a payment, we may block your access, terminate your subscription, or refuse to process a payment. Examples include transactions where the payment is from a sanctioned person or country; or where we reasonably believe there is a legal or regulatory risk or a risk of loss being suffered by us or our customers or partners. You promise that you are not located in a sanctioned country and are not on a sanctioned persons list. We may also block users from a country if we can't receive payments from that country and we may take any of these actions without notice.
60. Relationship between the parties; assignment: Nothing in these terms is to be construed as constituting a partnership, joint venture, employment or agency relationship between you and us, or between you and any other subscriber or invited user. It is your sole responsibility for resolving disputes between you and any other subscriber or invited user. As we deem appropriate, BlueSky may assign these terms - or any of our rights or obligations in these terms - to another BlueSky entity. BlueSky entities are the companies controlled by or under common control with Sunshade Capital Pty Limited (an Australian company with registration Australian Business Number 54 612 233 637).

61. Changes to these terms: We will make every effort to let you know if, or when, we decide to change these terms of use. We usually endeavour to provide you with 30 days' notice of material changes before they become effective unless immediate changes are required for reasons we do not have control over. Notification will generally be by email or by posting a visible notice through our products and services. If a change is not material, we may not notify you. If you find a modified term unacceptable, you may terminate your subscription by giving the standard advance notice of 30 days to BlueSky.
62. Enforcement of terms: If there is any part of these terms that either one of us is unable to enforce, we will ignore that part, however everything else will remain enforceable.
63. Interpretation: It is important to note that words like 'include' and 'including' are not words of limitation and where anything is within our discretion, we mean our sole discretion.
64. BlueSky contracting entities; law and venue: Our contracting entities are listed in the table below along with what law and venue apply in any dispute between you and us:
